ABOUT US

The Canadian Caribbean Association of Halton (CCAH) has been proudly serving the Halton Region since 1977 and gained charitable status in 2000. We promote diversity, inclusion, and cultural awareness through education, youth programs, and community events.

Our mission is to celebrate Canadian-Caribbean culture, build understanding among communities, and create opportunities for youth and families to connect through shared experiences.

Through partnerships, cultural events, and local outreach, we work to strengthen relationships, preserve heritage, and empower future generations.

WHY PARTNER WITH CCAH

Becoming a CCAH sponsor means joining a trusted organization with nearly five decades of impact in Halton. Together, we can continue to foster unity, celebrate culture, and drive meaningful change in the community.

Benefits of Partnership:

- Brand Alignment: Associate your organization with a respected, community-driven non-profit.
- Community Visibility: Gain exposure across events, social media, and community networks.
- Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR): Support diversity, youth empowerment, and cultural education.
- Collaborative Impact: Contribute to lasting programs that build stronger, more inclusive communities.

Together, these partnerships make events like Black History Month possible, a time when CCAH brings the community together to celebrate culture, achievement, and unity across Halton.

BUILDING STRONGER COMMUNITIES

Our work is guided by four foundational pillars that bring people together through EDUCATION, COMMUNITY, CULTURE, and HARMONY.

Over 5000 community members engage with CCAH programs each year
